A Marvelous Bargain Sale.

We have rounded up our stock at inventory and find an overstock here on certain lines of goods. Those goods will be closed out at once in one of those marvelous bargain sales that have made Castberg's famous. We are taking a big loss on these goods now rather than carry them till next season and sell them at regular price. That is good business—it's the business policy that shows the advancement of a house.

We mention only a few of the lines—some at a third—some at a half, and some at only a fifth the regular value of the goods. You'll find them all properly displayed here. Sale starts this morning and continues till the lines are closed out.

Makes Happy Homes

Lehman, La., July 31, 1900. We have been married twelve years and have done all we could to make our home happy. We have spent $150.00 with doctors to bring us a child, but have always failed. But on hearing of your Wine of Cardui I decided to try a bottle. I was surprised to find it to be just as it was represented and it was just what I needed. I became pregnant and expect to be confined in two or three months.

Mrs. LINDA LAWRENCE.

Marriage, which does not culminate in motherhood, is a travesty on wedlock. It makes a home barren and desolate that ought to be happy. But careful investigation proves that actual barrenness is rare. Many women are denied the happiness of children in their home on account of some slight derangement of the generative organs which would cure. Instead of enjoying the privilege of motherhood many thousands of good women are languishing on beds of sickness, suffering dragging menstrual pains, the agonies of falling of the womb and the distress of leucorrhoea. Mrs. Lawrence had the same experience, but she was cured by Wine of Cardui, the same great medicine that has made many thousands of barren homes happy. You can be cured. Wine of Cardui regenerates the weakened female organs by building up the worn-out nerves, regulating the menstrual flow and restoring the fallen womb to its proper place. In strengthening the generative organs and reinforcing nature's functions Wine of Cardui rarely fails to make childbirth possible. Your home can be a happy home. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui. Take no substitute!

ALL CHINA IN A FERMENT

DANGER OF A GENERAL UPRISING IN SHANGHAI.

Germany's Policy Said to Be Responsible for the Bad Conditions There.

LONDON, May 1.—Dr. Morrison, writing to the Times from Peking April 29, protests that Count von Waldersee's policy of punitive expeditions has "thrown the greater part of the province of Chi-li into anarchy and disorder."

"This is so complete," he says, "that the neighborhood of Peking is now more unsafe for foreigners than at any previous time since the occupation began. The trade with the interior is crippled. The only armed Chinese are robbers and 'Boxers.' Restoration to the Chinese of territorial jurisdiction has become a paramount need."

The correspondent mentions incidentally that neither the British legation nor General Gaselee was notified of the expedition into Shan-Si.

"It is reported that the Japanese government has reserved a subsidized mail steamer for its own use," says the Shanghai correspondent of the Morning Post. "This suggests that Japan is preparing for emergencies."

The desperate state of the private finances of Japan is said to be making the war propaganda popular. According to opinion in Shanghai an outbreak of hostilities would be the signal for a rising throughout China.

"Everywhere among the Chinese there is a feeling of unrest," says a dispatch to the Standard from Tien Tsin. "There is no doubt that petty attacks upon foreigners continue, and the statement is correct that bodies of well-armed Chinese are secretly drilling. Chinese picked troops are reported in strength in the vicinity of Pao-Ting-Fu. The situation demands the retention of the foreign troops for the present."

A dispatch from Peking, dated April 30, says: General Voyron, commander of the French forces, is about leaving Peking for Tien Tsin. He will make his headquarters there and supervise the reduction of the French troops, who will be gradually withdrawn in accordance with the wishes of the ministers of the power who demand that a partial reduction of the foreign troops should be begun immediately.

Today Count von Waldersee sent the reply of the generals to the views of the ministers regarding the military questions discussed yesterday by the generals in conference. The reply agrees in main with the suggestions submitted by the ministers, and names 300 as the number of troops by which each of the powers shall be represented in the garrisons at Tien Tsin and Shan-Hai-Kwan.

At their meeting tomorrow the ministers will receive the report of the special committee that has been investigating Chinese finances.

It is stated by officials here that the main German expeditionary force in China is now withdrawing to its former position leaving a garrison at the pass at the great wall.

The non-participation of the French in the battle was not due to orders received from Paris, but to their failure to arrive in time.

Further expeditions are not projected, and will only be undertaken should the Chinese make them necessary.

In official circles it is believed that General Lin acted upon his own initiative, or perhaps at the suggestion of some anti-foreign mandarin, officials not believing that the Chinese government ordered Liu to resist the Germans, since such action is plainly against the government's interests.

COLLEGE PARK NEWS.

Reception to Rev. F. S. Middleton—Census Enumerators.

Special Correspondence of The Evening Star.

COLLEGE PARK, Md., May 1, 1901. The Ladies' Aid Society of Berwyn Chapel today tendered Rev. F. S. Middleton, pastor of the church, a reception in commemoration of his thirty-ninth birthday anniversary. The reception was held in the gymnasium adjoining the church.

Mr. Middleton was presented with a silk slumber quilt composed of forty-two squares of handsome silk, with the name of a member of the society on each one. After the exchange of felicitations a collation was served. The reception was in charge of Mrs. L. N. Davis, chairman of the society.

A musical under the auspices of the Berwyn Choral Society of Berwyn Chapel was given last night in the gymnasium of that chapel. It was in charge of Mr. McElwee, choirmaster. The amusement of the evening was furnished by talented young people of Washington. Among those who took part were Miss Adelaide Leynham, Mr. Bach, Miss Helen Rowe and Miss L. Pechin.

Prof. Henry Lanahan of the Maryland Agricultural College is ill of appendicitis at the home of Prof. H. T. Harrison, a member of the faculty of that institution.

Mr. P. L. Peach and Mr. W. Wilfred Calk have been chosen as principal and alternate, respectively, to represent the local college.

Dr. H. L. Sherwood, D.D.S., today returned to his home in this place after an absence of five months, during the greater part of which he has been confined under treatment at the Garfield Hospital in Washington for an attack of paralysis of the face.

DESTROYED BY FIRE.

Barn and Part of Contents Burned—Loss $3,000.

Special Correspondence of The Evening Star.

ROCKVILLE, Md., April 30, 1901. About 7 o'clock Monday evening the handsome new barn on the farm of Mr. Francis Snowden, near Ashton, this county, was totally destroyed by fire. About seventy-five barrels of corn, a large quantity of hay, a reaper and a number of other farming implements were also consumed, and three horses and a calf perished in the flames. The total loss was about $3,000, partly covered by insurance in the Sandy Spring Company.

The fire was discovered shortly after the farm hands finished milking, and is supposed to have been caused by a spark from the pipe of one of the men. The flames spread very rapidly, and it was found to be useless to attempt to save the building, so attention was directed to the live stock in the barn. All the cows and four horses were gotten out, but three of the latter ran back to their destruction. The flames lit up the country for miles around and a large crowd was attracted to the scene.

Bishop Henry V. Satterlee visited Rockville Sunday, and confirmed a class of six persons and preached to a large congregation in Christ Episcopal Church. In the afternoon he confirmed a class at Ascension Church, Gaithersburg.

The regular meeting of the Montgomery Anti-Saloon League was held Saturday at Brighton Grange Hall. A large number of the churches, Sunday schools and temperance organizations of the county were represented by delegates. Rev. Mr. Jamison and State Superintendent of Education, Baltimore and Mrs. Mary R. Haslup, president of the Maryland Women's Christian Temperance Union, addressed the gathering.

The "Parker-Bridget" Clothing
Must Interest Every Man

Who appreciates the best results procurable for the expenditure he makes.

The literature of clothing is interesting, when good garments and right prices unite to make it so. Therefore this ought to be good reading.

There's no guesswork about our clothing, be the price you pay for the Suit of Clothes $8.50 or $35.

You'll note the material all wool, the pattern new and desirable, the cut and fit perfect, the style strictly correct; in fact, every point about the Suit will be just as if made to your order.

And, too, you have greatest advantages here, because you're not restricted to one style, as you are at the custom tailors' after your order is placed. Here you choose from scores of patterns at every price—and every pattern a choice one. Offering as we do greater stocks and variety than any other clothing store, means naturally that you can be best suited at the Parker-Bridget establishment.

There's no questioning that fact, which is a positive fact.

Men's Suits, $8.50 to $35.00.

Youths' Suits, $6.50 to $20.00.

Boys' Suits, $2.50 to $10.00.

And everything else man and boy wear.

Taffeta Silk Etons, $14.75.

This is exceptionally good value, as the price is far less than garments of this sort can be bought for elsewhere.

All new, perfect Etons, such as are worn and appreciated by women of style and taste.

Tailored Suits, $27.50.

A special lot bought for this special sale.

Choice of black, blues and grays. Women accustomed to paying $40 to $45 for their Tailored Gowns can confidently count upon these as affording the same elegance and all-around satisfaction.

SALOONS ENJOINED.

Laurel Citizens Propose to Investigate Saloons at Foundry.

Special Correspondence of The Evening Star.

LAUREL, Md., May 1, 1901.

A writ of injunction has been issued against all the proprietors of the different saloons doing business in this town, prohibiting them from engaging in the sale of intoxicating liquors. This injunction has been issued on the complaint of citizens of the town to the effect that the proprietors of the saloons have not complied with the law during the past several years, and that their plan of proceeding should be investigated before any licenses should be issued to them. The complainants in the case, so it is said, aver that the requisite number of signers to the papers have not been secured in the past, as required by the law. The injunction affects all four of the saloons, and if it is found that licenses cannot be issued the town will lose somewhat over a thousand dollars in the way of annual fees.

A demand on the part of a large number of the employees of Divens' foundry, in this place, has been made for weekly pay instead of monthly wages. Yesterday the demand was renewed and upon being met with a refusal on the part of the owners the plant the mothers decided to go out on a strike. The men express their determination to stick to their demand and say they will not go back unless the company accedes to their wishes.

Mayor and Clerk Renominated.
